

WCEF2019 in Helsinki, 3-5 June 2019 – The Next Era of the Circular Economy

The World Circular Economy Forum 2019 will be organised on 3-5 June 2019 at Finlandia Hall in the centre of the Finnish capital Helsinki. Finlandia Hall is a multipurpose venue...

Read More

---

EU report notes progress toward circular economy

A recent report by the European Commission notes progress toward a circular economy, but warns several of the 14 European Union (EU) member countries are “at risk” of missing the...

Read More

---

19th ERSCP – Circular Europe for Sustainability: Design, Production and Consumption.

---

The ERSCP 2019 is organized by the Institute of Sustainable Sciences and Technology of the Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya – BarcelonaTech, and will take place in Barcelona from 15 to...

Read More

---

22nd European Forum on Eco-innovation: Closing the Loop – delivering circularity in the textiles sector

The 22nd European Forum on Eco-innovation will be held in Vienna, Austria, on 7-8 May, 2019. The Forum will explore eco-innovation solutions and policies for improving circularity in the textiles...

Read More

---

FURN360: an e-learning course on circular economy for the Vocational Education Training of the furniture sector

The Erasmus+ project FURN360 arise with the goal to develop an European training curriculum and learning contents to implement strategies capable of facilitating the transition from a linear model to...

Read More

European Commission's report to implement the Circular Economy Action Plan

The European Commission published in March a comprehensive report on the implementation of the Circular Economy Action Plan it adopted in December 2015. The report presents the main results of...

Read More

---

Example of circularity in a furniture company

In the second half of 2018 the danish company Højer Møbler took in an intern from the graduate program Environmental management and sustainability science. Højer Møbler counsel about learning environments...

Read More

